HURLEY, Senior District Judge

Pending before the Court is an application by defendant Kenneth Jurow ("defendant" or "Jurow") for an order pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e)(1) for early termination of his term for supervised release. The application is opposed by the Probation Department. Defendant was sentenced by me on May 5, 2000, following a conviction for Conspiracy to Distribute and Possess with Intent to Distribute Marijuana. He was sentenced to, inter alia, forty months incarceration followed by five years of supervised release.

DISCUSSION

Section 3583(e) provides in pertinent part:

The court may, after considering the factors set forth in section 3553(a)(1), (a)(2)(B), (a)(2)(C), (a)(2)(D), (a)(4), (a)(5), (a)(6), and (a)(7)–

(1) terminate a term of supervised release and discharge the defendant released at any time after the expiration of one year of supervised release, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure relating to the modification of probation, if it is satisfied that such action is warranted by the conduct of the defendant released and the interest of justice.

The Court has reviewed the portions of § 3553(a) referenced in § 3583(e) in conjunction with the application submitted by the defendant. See generally United States v. Lussier, 104 F.3d 32, 34-35 (2d Cir. 1997). Having done so, I decline to grant the relief requested although I am impressed by defendant's significant achievements since his release from prison.

In sum, the current application for early termination of supervised release is denied.

SO ORDERED.
